

Cheri Young

Associate | banking and finance
cyoung@ENSafrica.com
mobile +27 66 489 8949

"no boundaries"

practical experience

Cheri Young is an Associate in ENSafrica's Banking and Finance department.

Her experience relates to pension funds, financial markets, financial services, the banking sector, as well as cryptocurrency markets, as well as within the context of the National Credit Act, Consumer Protection Act and Protection of Personal Information Act. She also has experience in litigation, as well as regulatory knowledge of, and experience in terms of, property law, natural resources law (water, environment, minerals and energy), expropriation, shipping law, administrative law and constitutional law.

qualifications

- LLB (University of Cape Town)
- PhD (University of Cape Town)
- Admitted as an attorney of the High Court of South Africa

