

Firdaus Hussenbocus-Busgeeth

Senior Associate
fhussenbocus-busgeeth@ENSafrica.com mobile +230 5935 3745

"no boundaries"

practical experience

Firdaus Hussenbocus-Busgeeth is a Senior Associate at ENSafrica in Mauritius. She specialises in general corporate law, commercial law, employment law, competition law and consumer law.

She has acted for clients in the public and private sectors, including local corporations, multinationals, state entities and financial institutions.

Firdaus has advised on a range of corporate and commercial transactions in relation to the OHADA legal system in Francophone Africa.

Her experience includes advising clients on contract management, the review of legal and regulatory compliance, corporate structures and various issues related to general corporate law, as well as conducting legal due diligences.

qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Business law Paris Descartes University (Licence))
- 1st year Master's degree in Business law (Paris Descartes University)
- 2nd year Master's degree in International Business law (Paris Descartes University)

ENSafrica.com