

James Haydock

Executive | dispute resolution
jhaydock@ENSafrica.com
mobile +27 76 918 3556

"times will change - we're determined to make them even better"

practical experience

James Haydock is an Executive at ENSafrica in the Dispute Resolution practice.

Recent matters in which James has been involved include where he:

- acted for a JSE-listed company in relation to the disputed awarding of a tender (case succeeded in the High Court)
- acted for a mining company in relation to a dispute over the interpretation of a contract (case succeeded both at the arbitration stage and on review to the High Court)
- acted for an industry regulator to obtain an Anton Pillar order to prevent the possible destruction of evidence (case succeeded in the High Court)
- acted for a number of blue-chip companies in a variety of contractual disputes heard both in the courts and by way of private arbitrations

He is an accredited mediator (since 2013), and has a strong focus on finding innovative resolutions to matters wherever possible, in addition to litigating where necessary.

James is also admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales, where he worked between 2001 and 2006 at the Insolvency Service, the Companies Investigation Branch (of the UK Department of Trade & Industry) and at a private law firm.

He is recognised as a leading/recommended lawyer by:

- Best Lawyers® 2022, 2017, 2016 – Litigation (South Africa)
- The Legal 500 EMEA 2022, 2021, 2020 – Dispute Resolution - Recommended / Key Lawyer (South Africa)

qualifications

- LLB (Rhodes University)
- BA (Reading University, England)
- Diploma in Sports Management (London Business & Management School)
- Commercial Mediation Accreditation Programme (Africa Centre for Dispute Settlement)
- Admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales