practical experience

Justin Balkin is an Executive at ENSafrica in the Competition / Anti-Trust department.

Justin is involved in all aspects of competition law, including merger control and behavioural issues, in South Africa and in numerous other African jurisdictions with antitrust regimes (including COMESA).

Justin's mergers experience includes advising on transaction structures, compiling merger notifications and the antitrust components of hostile takeover bids.

From a behavioural perspective, Justin has been involved in various contested proceedings in relation to cartel conduct, prohibited practices and abuses of dominance. He has also advised clients on the Competition Commission's corporate leniency policy and has extensive experience in performing competition law compliance reviews and competition law training.

Justin has also been actively involved in the Competition Law Sub-Committee of the Law Society. He is the author of several articles on competition law and is an editor of the Butterworth's Competition Law Report.
