"plunge boldly into the thick of life"

practical experience

Natasha Wagiet is a Pro Bono Coordinator at ENSafrica in the Mitchell's Plain office, and oversees ENSafrica's CSI portfolio.

Her experience includes advising on gender and child justice, human trafficking, liaising with various stakeholders from both government and civil society, conflict resolution, legal administration, and advocacy.

As ENSafrica's Mitchells Plain pro bono coordinator, Natasha is responsible for screening pro bono matters and coordinating consultations with ENSafrica's practitioners, as well as running legal awareness workshops.

Natasha has a particular interest in socio- economic rights issues, as well as intellectual property and traditional knowledge.
