

Nomampondo Banzi

Senior Associate | employment
nbanzi@ENSafrica.com
mobile +27 82 310 0585

"it always seems impossible until it's done" - Nelson Mandela

practical experience

Nomampondo Banzi is a Senior Associate in ENSafrica's Employment department. She specialises in general employment law as well as Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA) and Labour Court litigation.

Her experience includes drafting employment contracts and agreements and advising clients on various labour-related matters such as retrenchments, s197 transfers and obtaining interdicts against strike and protest action and urgent applications to enforce restraint of trade.

In addition, Nomampondo is experienced in general commercial law, having drafted various commercial documentation including shareholders agreements, memoranda of incorporation and sale agreements.

She has conducted a number of due diligence investigations in both employment and commercial law spheres.

qualifications

- LLB (University of Cape Town)
- BSocSci (politics & public policy, administration) (University of Cape Town)
- Admitted as an attorney of the High Court of South Africa