

Thomas Nguluma

Executive | banking and finance, corporate commercial, project development and project finance
tnguluma@ENSafrica.co.tz
mobile +255 78 732 4119

"no boundaries"

practical experience

Thomas Nguluma is a partner at ENSafrica in Tanzania. He specialises in corporate, banking and finance law and project finance.

His experience includes advising local and international clients on corporate transactions, banking matters, the financing of projects, capital market transactions, mergers and acquisitions, projects and intellectual property.

Thomas has also advised clients in the areas of oil, gas and natural resources, and has been involved in the legal aspects of a number of major M&A transactions in Tanzania.

Furthermore, Thomas has experience in commercial and civil litigation as well as first-hand experience in international arbitration, having been involved in one of the most significant international arbitration cases (ICC) in Tanzania.

In 2011, Thomas was one of only two lawyers selected for a training secondment to a major London law firm.

Thomas is recognised as a Rising Star lawyer by:

- IFLR1000 Financial and Corporate Guide 2019, 2018 – Leading Lawyer – Rising Star (Tanzania)

qualifications

- LLB (Hons) (Middlesex University, UK)
- LLM (Nottingham Trent University, UK)