

Tumi Modubu

Senior Associate | dispute resolution
tmodubu@ENSafrica.com
mobile +27 82 560 3597

"no boundaries"

practical experience

Tumi Modubu is a Senior Associate in ENSafrica's Dispute Resolution department. She specialises in commercial litigation and alternative dispute resolution.

Tumi has acted for listed and unlisted clients in a variety of industries, including the municipalities, media, mining and oil and gas industries.

Tumi's experiences includes advising multinational clients on all aspects of dispute resolution and arbitration, as well as on administrative law and constitutional law litigation; housing, regulatory, municipal and government matters; and tax dispute resolution.

Her experience further includes advising on franchising matters, as well as advising media companies on all aspects of media dispute resolution; print, broadcasting and electronic media law, including defamation, privacy, copyright, data protection; and licensing regulation disputes and litigation. Tumi has also advised on mining and oil and gas projects.

qualifications

- LLB (University of Johannesburg)
- LLM (University of Johannesburg)
- Advanced Certificate in Company Law (University of the Witwatersrand)
- Admitted as an attorney of the High Court of South Africa