

Rachel Wan Wing Kai

Associate | intellectual property (IP), real estate / property, Asia
rwan@ENSafrica.com
mobile +230 5728 5620

"develop success from failures - discouragement and failure are two of the surest stepping stones to success"

practical experience

Rachel Wan Wing Kai is an Associate at ENSafrica | Mauritius. She specialises in commercial litigation law including international private law, breach of contract and tort.

Rachel's experience includes private international law disputes, international arbitration award enforcement, landlord and tenant disputes, contract of sale, former employee and employer disputes and interpretation of contract among others. She has also provided advice related to commercial matters to local corporate clients in Mauritius.

qualifications

- LLB (University of Mauritius)
- Vocational Examinations for Attorneys (Council of Legal Education in Mauritius)
- Attorney-at-Law