practical experience

Wil Huang is a Senior Transactions Specialist at ENSafrica's Asia Practice Group.

In addition to general commercial litigation, Wil specialises in construction, professional liability and insurance related matters. Wil's experience includes the provision of advice and defence of actions brought against major construction companies and auditing firms.

Wil is fluent in English and Chinese and has an in-depth understanding of Chinese business and culture. He has worked with numerous Chinese speaking clients in the past and his services are dedicated to the connection of our Chinese clients to the right practitioner in the relevant practice areas.
