practical experience

Zara Sher is an Associate in ENSafrica's Dispute Resolution department. She focuses primarily on insurance and construction disputes, but also on general commercial litigation matters.

Zara has a specific expertise in construction insurance guarantees, including securities and recoveries in relation to such guarantees, both nationally and cross-border, and construction and engineering insurance covers.

She has a special interest in alternative dispute resolution, and in particular in international arbitration.

Zara regularly presents accreditation lectures to the Insurance Institute of South Africa.
